3 DESIGNATION OF “CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS OR INFORMATION”

4 The Parties may designate such documents or information as “Confidential” in accordance 5 with the following procedures:
6

7 A. “Confidential” Documents or Information.

8 Either Party may designate any documents, records, reports, video tapes, tangible items,
9 or information as “Confidential.” Upon a designation of “Confidential,” the Parties shall treat 10 any designated document, record, report, video tape, tangible item, or information as confidential 11 and shall only use such document, record, report, video tape, tangible item, or information solely 12 for the prosecution or defense of this matter.
13

14 B. Time of Designation

15 Unless otherwise agreed between counsel for the Parties, the designation of Confidential

1 hard copy or printout shall be treated as “Confidential Information pursuant to this Stipulated 2 Protective Order.”

3 D. Retroactive Designation

4 1. Inadvertent production of any Confidential Documents or Information without a 5 designation of confidentiality will not be deemed to waive a later claim as to confidentiality or 6 privilege, or prevent the Party claiming confidentiality from re-designating such documents or 7 information as “Confidential” promptly after discovery of the inadvertent production.

8 2. Within a reasonable time after production, either Party may retroactively designate (or 9 withdraw a designation) of Confidential Documents or Information, regarding any material that 10 it has produced, provided however, that such retroactive designation (or withdrawal) shall be in 11 accordance with the terms of this Order. Such retroactive designation (or withdrawal) shall be 12 accomplished by notifying counsel for the non-designating Party in writing of such retroactive 13 designation (or withdrawal). Upon receipt of any such written re-designation, counsel (i) shall 14 not make any further disclosure or communication of such retroactively designated material

21 If either Party, at any time, wishes to have the “Confidential” designation of any particular

1 agree to remove or change the designation, then the Party that requests that the designation be so
 2 removed may make a motion before this Court for an order removing or changing the designation;
 3 provided, however, that the designating Party shall have the burden of proving that such particular

 6 treat the Confidential Documents or Information as originally designated until a change is agreed

 22 their actual receipt by both counsel for Plaintiff and counsel for Defendants in this action, in order 23 to enable each such counsel to determine whether in their view any protected information is 24 embodied therein. If no designation of the information as “Confidential” by the Designating Party
 25 is received by the non-Designating Party within twenty (20) business days after production, then 26 the information will not be protected by this Protective Order except pursuant to subsequent
